

Air Force Security Forces Officer

- The Air Force's law enforcement and base security organization
- Security Forces officers ensure combat capability through the functions of installation, nuclear and conventional weapon systems, and resources security, force protection, integrated defense, installation access control, law and order, military police services, personnel security, mission assurance, military working dog activities, and combat arms
- New lieutenants can expect to:
 - Lead, manage, and direct Security Forces personnel and missions
 - Deploy to hostile environments created by terrorism, sabotage, nuclear, chemical, biological, and conventional warfare
 - Protect nuclear and conventional weapons systems and other resources
 - Develop Security Forces plans, policies, procedures, and instructions
 - Assess installation or expeditionary vulnerabilities
- Relevant Interests & Skills
 - Emergency Management Response
 - Law Enforcement
 - Weaponry
- Upon commissioning, must complete an in-person 14-week technical training school at JBSA-Camp Bullis in San Antonio, TX

➤ Qualifications

- Be able to acquire a secret security clearance
- Be suitable and qualified to carry weapons
- Have no history of personality disorders or criminal activity
- No history of excessive alcohol use
- Have a valid and current state driver's license

➤ Potential Career Opportunities

- Sister-service school attendance:
 - Marine Corps Expeditionary Warfare School
 - US Army Ranger School
 - US Army Air Assault School
- FBI National Academy attendance
- Experience working with other federal and civilian law enforcement agencies
- Contingency Response Group experience
- Military Working Dog & Combat Arms operations